

CFSC Receives 2021 INFiN StAR Award for Outstanding Store Appearance

New York, NY, November 2021: INFiN, a Financial Services Alliance, awarded CFSC: Community Financial Service Centers with its prestigious 2021 StAR Award, recognizing its store location at 510 Claremont Parkway in Bronx, NY as a model for the industry in store appearance and customer engagement. StAR Award winners were announced at INFiN's MoneyTrends 2021 conference in Washington, D.C.

Launched in 2010, the StAR Award is presented each year to INFiN member companies demonstrating outstanding efforts to enhance, improve, and beautify the communities in which they operate, as embodied by the appearance and/or renovation of winning storefront locations. CFSC was one of six companies – among INFiN's more than 350 members, with approximately 8,000 locations – to receive the 2021 StAR Award.

“We have been supporting the residents and businesses in Bronx for more than a decade with over 20 locations. Our Claremont location is a strong store providing a variety of financial services to this Bronx community. The interior of the store was in need of some upgrades to assist customers and employees better” noted Larry Liskiewicz, CFSC's Operations Director. “The store is brighter Our customers and employees are so happy with the results!”
